I've wanted a challenging career, so I chose the Dallas County Sheriff's Department. The job is very demanding and you're faced with different challenges every time you step in the jail.

My Husband is a Sergeant for the Dallas Police Department needless to say we have a lot in common. We enjoy spending time with our two boys; because of their huge age difference they are very entertaining.

I feel very blessed in life to have made so many wonderful friends here at the Sheriff's Department. The employees of the Dallas Sheriff's Department make this a great place to work!
